

PARAMOUNT Miami Worldcenter Offers State-Of-The-Art Residential Amenities for the Sports and Fitness Enthusiast

July 4, 2019 By Alejandra Tenorio

From the visionary mastermind of Dan Kodsí comes PARAMOUNT Miami Worldcenter — the most amenitized residential building in the world. Presenting an unparalleled lifestyle, the luxe residential tower will boast 46 cutting-edge amenities including an action-packed array of state-of-the-art fitness and sports amenities for the ultimate sports enthusiast.

Kicking up the stakes, PARAMOUNT Miami Worldcenter will feature one of America's first outdoor soccer fields in a high-rise residential development. Built to indoor regulation size, the pitch is scoring a game-winning goal with buyers around the globe.

“The world’s number one sport is coming to PARAMOUNT Miami Worldcenter,” said developer Daniel Kodsí. “We are including amenities for families who wish to live in the core of downtown Miami but also want plenty of open green space to play. PARAMOUNT has attracted buyers from around the world and will not only boast luxurious living with world-class amenities, but it will also be nestled in the heart of what is set to be the very best new shopping, entertainment and dining district.”

In addition to the soccer field, the highly-anticipated development will boast tennis courts, a running course, yoga deck, basketball court and racquetball court. Its first-of-its-kind Upper Deck will debut as the largest amenity deck in the U.S. spanning four-acres at 90 feet above downtown Miami and is home to the tower's chic resort-style pool complete with floating pods and private bungalows along with a premier sports and entertainment complex. The only residential tower currently for sale within the mixed-use Miami Worldcenter site – PARAMOUNT will offer residents a vibrant blend of retail, restaurants, office space, lush parks, galleries and nightlife.

With the end user's experience in mind, PARAMOUNT set out to create amenities that allow families who wish to live in the heart of Downtown Miami the ability to access open green space to stay fit, relax and soak up the sun. Embodying the Miami lifestyle, its sports facilities and fitness amenities will feature unparalleled skyline views and seamlessly blend indoor and outdoor living.

For those looking to stay in shape, the multi-faceted residential development will also feature a jogging path, boxing studio, Tai Chi deck and state-of-the-art fitness center. Ready for move-in this year, it's hard to resist the appeal of PARAMOUNT Miami Worldcenter. Nestled in the heart of Miami's legendary downtown completewith large residences, expansive outdoor living rooms and luxurious resort-style amenities, the residential sky complex is revolutionizing the industry.
